MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Eloise R. Page
Deputy Director, Intelligence Community Staff

SUBJECT: Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program

1. Action Requested: That you sign the attached letters requesting CIA/DDI, DIA, NSA, and State/INR to name representatives to serve on the Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program Selection Committee.

2. Background: Applicants for the Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program are first reviewed and ranked by an Intelligence Community Staff panel. The rankings are then reviewed by a Community-wide Selection Committee which makes nominations for DCI approval. Your signature is required on the attached letters asking for the appointment of members to the Selection Committee.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM: William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program

In establishing the Selection Committee for the Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program for 1986, I intend to follow last year's pattern with representation from CIA, DIA, NSA, and State/INR. The Selection Committee will meet in early February. In keeping with the tradition of rotating the chairmanship, the CIA representative will chair this coming year's Selection Committee. I should appreciate your appointing a representative to serve in that capacity. Last year, Mr. Dick Kerr represented CIA.

The Selection Committee will meet in early February. The chairmanship traditionally has rotated among the members. CIA is next in line for 1986.

Please respond to  Intelligence Community Staff with the name of your representative.
